1. How many local groups have members of the executive committee been able to contact (visit, phone, email, etc.) during the past year?
2. Name one or two accomplishments that your Regional Executive Committee experienced this past year.
3. Name one or two struggles/challenges that you've faced as a Regional Executive Committee this past year.

4. Name one or two new ways that you plan to resource the local Women's Ministry groups in your region in the coming year.
5. If you had a retreat or participated in a retreat this past year, how many attended or how many churches were present. (Please attach a schedule, if you have one)
6. If you have a regional newsletter, please attach copies.
7. List any groups in your region that are no longer active as of this year. Please list by church name:
8. Have any new local women's ministry groups been created/started/reorganized (or even expressed an interest) since last year's report? If so, list them below indicating 1) church name, 2) president's (or other contact) name & address, 3) number of women involved.
9. List any local groups that are no longer active, BUT you could revitalize. Describe how you might go about that ministry of support and encouragement.
10. How can the denominational Executive Committee help and support you in your ministry as Regional officers?

This information will be compiled and shared with the regional officers at the annual Regional Council meeting during Convention, on the Women's Ministry website (www.cumberland.org/bom), and in other appropriate resources.

The Convention President or another member of the Executive Committee can be available to visit & support your regional ministry in a variety of ways. Please contact the Convention President to schedule a visit (or the Director of Women's Ministry to schedule one of the other officers). Expenses are typically travel, lodging (or host home), and meals. These expenses can be negotiated, though, especially if a region has not had a visit from an officer in quite some time.
